

Project Submission Form

Name of Project

Affiliated NGO (if any)

Contact Person

Contact Phone

Contact Email

Brief description of need:

Brief overview of proposed project:

How does the project address the need?

List the specific short and long-term impact of the project including the number of people affected:

Total Amount Needed:

Briefly describe the timeline of project:

List donor benefits including possible naming opportunities, listing on websites, etc.:

Contact information including name, telephone and email for person submitting this project:

Along with this information, please submit the following via email to info@parosfoundation.org:

Detailed Budget, Photos, Videos (if available), Links to relative online related project resources (if available)

All Armenia-based non-governmental organizations are eligible to submit a proposal for possible inclusion on The Paros Foundation's website. Individuals who have an idea for a project or a general area they would like to get involved with are welcome to contact us prior to submitting a proposal. Submission of a project does not guarantee inclusion or funding. All materials submitted become the property of The Paros Foundation.